WorkSource Portland Metro Opens Forest Grove Access Center

Forest Grove, OR, January 15, 2010 -- On Monday, December 21, Worksystems Inc., the City of Forest Grove and the Oregon Employment Department opened the WorkSource Portland Metro Express Center at 2012 Main Street in Forest Grove.

“With the Forest Grove Express Center and our recently opened Beaverton/Hillsboro Center on the PCC Willow Creek Campus, we have significantly increased access to employment services for Washington County residents,” says Worksystems Executive Director, Andrew McGough.

The Express Center offers western Washington county residents a broad array of workforce development and related services including job search tools, resume writing assistance and interview coaching, and access to adult education including GED, English as a Second Language (ESL), and basic computer classes. Staff are available to assist with identifying your strengths and focusing your job search on high growth occupations. And, if you’re interested in career advancement, we can connect you with a variety of training options to increase your skills.
